SUBJECT: TMP Exception for Professional Temporary Exports

The export of items, technology, commercial software, and encryption code is subject to export control regulations (which includes laptops, PDA's, and digital storage devices). The Department of Commerce's Export Administration Regulations (EAR) makes an exception to licensing requirements for the temporary export or re-export of certain items, technology, or software for professional use as long as the criteria to which you are certifying below are met. The exception does not apply to:

- EAR satellite or space-related equipment, components, or software
- Technology associated with high-level encryption products
- Defense items, technology data, or software regulated by the Department of State's International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR).

By my signature below, I certify that:

1. I will ship or hand-carry the items, technology, or software abroad as a “tool of the trade” to conduct TWU business only;
2. I will return the items, technology, or software to the US on [REDACTED], which is no later than 12 months from departing the US unless the items, technology, or software are certified by me to have been consumed or destroyed abroad during this 12 month period;
3. I will keep the items, technology, or software under my “effective control” while abroad (defined as retaining physical possession of the item or keeping it secured in a place such as a hotel safe, a bonded warehouse, or a locked or guarded exhibition facility);
4. I will take security precautions to protect against unauthorized release of the technology while the technology is being shipped or transmitted and used abroad, such as:
  - a. Use of secure connections when accessing e-mail and other business activities that involve the transmission and use of the technology.
  - b. Use of the password systems on electronic devices that store technology, and
  - c. Use of personal firewalls on electronic devices that store the technology;
5. The equipment will not be used in a relation with any nuclear research.
6. I will not ship or hand-carry the items, technology, or software to Iran, Syria, Cuba, North Korea, or Sudan without consulting with TWU’s Security Team.
