JOB DESCRIPTION

TITLE
Director, Academic Support & Collaboration Services

JOB SUMMARY
Reporting to the Assistant Dean, Academic Engagement Services, this position works closely with administrative and library colleagues to carry out the mission of the Libraries by providing leadership, direction, and oversight of the Academic Support and Collaboration Services Unit, which provides access to a broad range of services that support the University’s academic programs and research initiatives. This position works collaboratively with all three campus libraries and serves as a member of the Libraries’ management team. This position works closely with the Assistant Dean, Academic Engagement Services to ensure that library resources and services are appropriate and accessible to TWU students, faculty, and staff and that the Libraries are responsible stewards of the University’s financial resources. As a Director, this position serves as a member of the Library Administrative Team, setting the direction and goals for the TWU Libraries. Timely communication and adherence to deadlines is a critical part of this position. This is a supervisory position which is responsible for hiring, training, evaluating, and mentoring staff. The Director sets goals, priorities, initiates projects, implements standards, and develops workflow procedures. This is a security sensitive position that works under minimal supervision with latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Performance is based upon completion of assignments and results obtained. The performance evaluation is conducted through the performance evaluation system and in accordance with the University Policies and Procedures and is based on the accomplishment of defined objectives and the effectiveness of the assigned library functions.
