JOB DESCRIPTION

TITLE
Manager, Center for Research Design & Analysis

JOB SUMMARY
Performs management and supervisory work in the support and development of the center. Areas of concern include program development, project management and delegation, financial management and administration, consultation operations, and planning. The Center is a complex center with hundreds of active projects and clients (faculty, staff and student users). The center manager is critical to the day to day operations of the center, program development, project management and assignments, as well as budget management. The budget management involved multiple budget sources (i.e. funded grants, fee for services, IES funds, indirect costs, etc.). The center manager needs to manage those resources and bring any concerns or ideas to the executive director. Similarly program development and project management is key to the center staff completing accurate and efficient work, as well as program development of the center for future growth. Work is performed under general supervision and performance is based upon completion of assignments and results obtained. The performance evaluation is conducted through the performance evaluation system and in accordance with the University Policies & Procedures.
