JOB DESCRIPTION

TITLE

Manager, Research & User Experience

JOB SUMMARY

This position reports to the Assistant Dean of Libraries and provides leadership for the Libraries’ role as a campus partner in student success. The Manager, Research and User Experience expands and strengthens the Libraries’ research role and educational impact by collaborating with faculty and graduate students to advance the research process. The TWU Libraries support an extensive physical and virtual information collection to meet existing and emerging research needs. This position also mentors and provides continuous development to other professional librarians. The responsibilities of the Manager include the coordination of the research process and management of the end user experience. This includes identifying collection needs to support the services. The Manager provides specialized reference support to students, faculty, and others in the TWU community; they support assessment activities, surveys, user studies, focus groups, and program planning. They perform statistical analysis activities for the Denton, Dallas, and Houston campuses by providing information to various reporting agencies. This Manager works closely with the Manager, Instruction and Services to identify user needs and provide support and training to address them, resulting in a positive experience for our users. Work involves research support activities, staying current with technology and library trends and performing outreach activities. This position works closely with other administrative units on campus, including the Faculty Center for Excellence and the Pioneer Center for Student Excellence. The Manager plays a key role in demonstrating the value of the library within the University’s mission. This manager needs advanced knowledge of current electronic, computer, and other library technological systems, including hardware and software. Work is performed under moderate supervision with opportunity for the use of initiative and independent judgment; performance is based upon completion of assignments and results obtained. The performance evaluation is conducted through the performance evaluation system and in accordance with the University Policies & Procedures.
